To,
His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort St George, Madras.

The most humble representation of J. Sivasankaranudayan & Co., Kerosine oil merchants of Stone-housepett, a suburb of Nellore.

May it please your Excellency,

Your Excellency's petitioners most humbly beg to lay before your Excellency the following request and solicit that your Excellency will be pleased to give a favourable consideration to their humble prayer.

1. In a Municipal meeting recently held here for disposing of appeals regarding professional tax, the Chairman was of opinion that the petitioners sell Kerosine oil wholesale and taxed them accordingly though they sell cases which contain two tins each, and also tins after opening cases. Thereupon the petitioners made a reference to the Firm at Madras wherefrom they purchase Kerosine

Kerosine oil, and they in reply informed the petitioners that they, Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co., and other big firms who trade in Kerosine oil, sell only wholesale, that is in cases alone, but not in tins after opening cases. On receipt of the above reply, the petitioners in their petition dated 11th October last, requested the Chairman of the Nellore Municipality to make a reference to your Excellency's Government, and get the terms "Wholesale" and "Retail" clearly defined as they are not well defined so far as they relate to the Kerosine oil trade. To this the Chairman in his order, No. 1247, dated 15th October last, herewith sent, asked the petitioners to move your Excellency's Government themselves on the point if the petitioners thought it necessary.

2. Under the above circumstances your Excellency's humble petitioners take this opportunity of humbly and respectfully praying your Excellency's Government to decide whether the petitioners who sell Kerosine oil both in cases and also in tins after opening opening cases, are to be classed as wholesale or retail dealers, and further pray that your Excellency's Government will be highly pleased to define more clearly the terms "Wholesale" and "Retail" so far as they relate to the Kerosine oil trade, and thus not only lay your Excellency's humble petitioners under ever lasting obligations, but also render justice to the Kerosine oil traders in the whole Presidency.

For which act of kindness and grace your Excellency's humble petitioners, shak as in duty bound, ever pray.

The petitioners most humbly beg to remain,
May it please your Excellency Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servants
