Read the following paper:—

ORDER:—No. 1603 dated 30 November 1897.

With reference to the Chairman's remarks in paragraphs 7 and 8 of his letter read above, the Government observes that the objection therein raised to the grant by the Port and Customs officer, Mangalore, of transport licenses under which oil is taken direct from the ship and landed at Ullal, no longer ~~exists~~ exists as the jurisdiction of that officer in G.O. No. 830, Judicial, dated 12th June 1897, been extended so as to cover the limits of the port as well as those of Municipality.

2. In paragraphs 9 and 10 the Chairman discusses the question whether petroleum brought by ship to Mangalore should be considered as "imported" or "transported". This question has been decided by the issue of a notification described in section 4 (2) (a) of the Act, that petroleum imported into the port of Mangalore from the port of Ullal shall for the purposes of the Act, be deemed to be "truly in such importation rules will therefore no longer apply in such cases, their place being taken in future by rules relating to "transport".

Read again G.O. No. 1355, dated 14th October 1897.
From the following papers:-

G.O. No. 1355, dated 14th November 1897.

With reference to the Chairman's remarks in paragraphs 7 and 8 of his letter read above, the Government observes that the objection therein raised as to the grant by the Port and Customs Officer, Mangalore, of transport licenses under some oil is taken direct from the ship and landed at Ullal, in the former case as the jurisdiction of that officer has been extended in G.O. No. 630, dated 12th June 1897, been extended Chairman's so as to cover the limits of the port as well as the Municipality.

3. In paragraphs 9 and 10 the Chairman discusses the question whether petroleum brought by ship to Mangalore should be considered as "imported" or "transported". The Port and Customs Officer has been decided by the issue of a notification that section 4 (3) (a) of the Act, that petroleum brought into the port of Mangalore from the port of Ullal, for the purposes of the Act, be deemed to be imported; and that importation rules will therefore no longer apply in such cases, their place being taken in Mangalore by the rules in the "transport" rule.

3. The Chairman points out that the oil and petroleum at Ullal, which is neither a port nor a municipality, and is therefore a place to which none of the rules under the Petroleum Act have been applied, involves a loss of revenue. His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that this objection can best be met by the extension of the provisions of the Petroleum Act, either to the whole or to some portion of the district outside Mangalore. The District Magistrate will be requested to report on the advisability of such an extension.
