SUBJECT.

FOR ORDERS.

In his d.o. W. Ellis requests that his application for increase of pay (which has (on the analogy of Dr. J. N. Cook's case) to be referred to the Munic. Comm^y for an expression of their views, maybe so referred with the favorable recommendation of Cor^y.

For the reasons given in Mr. Forbes' note on Dr. Cook's case, I fear this is impossible. It would look like prejudging the matter. The Comm^y I submit should be consulted before an opinion is formed.

If - we are not bound to accept their opinion - I think the increase is unreasonable

I had said to him ask you to bring the matter to his notice when papers were brought to him for consideration. If my application is sent to the Commissioners, I have the least ground, yet a word of commendation the position is false. Moreover, I will think that Government is not pleasant to have to consider that I am the questioner of salary & merit discussed at a Public meeting. Especially so, when the Commissioners have had much opportunity of judging the importance of my work as of comparing it with that of other business

If however the Government decide to refer my application to the Commissioners I beg to request that they will be pleased to do so, with the recommendation that I be given the maximum salary.

In 1895 I asked for my salary to be raised to the maximum and thereupon I was given an increase of Rs 100 only, and the only Commissioner who made an adverse endorsement recommended that I should wait at least 3 years, and that I have done.

Yours sincerely
R. S. Srinivas.
