From

To

The Chairman
Municipal Council Lancaster

Sir

In reply to your No 866 of the 26th Instant, I have the honor to state that no information regarding rate of recent grants was furnished in Statement VB as grants were paid on the apportionment system.

2 According to the rules in force in 1896/97, grants to backward schools were paid at the maximum standard rates of the Code, and to other schools they were limited to their actual earnings and to the apportionment fixed for them with reference to net cost. When the actual earnings at examination exceeded apportionment the over-earnings were paid at the rate of Rs 1.3 in the Rupee, such rate having been fixed with reference to the total of differences between net cost and assignment and the total of lapses in the sanctioned assignment.

I have the honor &c.
