The release of pay resolution has been rather premature, I find that the price shown only during the last week that prices were exceptionally high but during the last three days there has been rain very fair rainfall & there might be more in the next few days. Prices understand have already gone down at Bezvada & so might go lower still in the course of the week.

The increase of pay is uncalled for. The resolution of the Council was passed when prices were at their lowest, and since then there has been a recovery which is likely to continue. A statement of prices in Bezwada for each week from 16th October to 4th December is submitted herewith.
