READ—the following paper :—

From the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, No. 810, dated 3rd March 1897.

With reference to G.O., No. 257, Judicial, dated 15th February 1897, and G.O., No. 315 M., dated 26th February 1897, I have the honour to state that I issued orders deputing a special European Inspector for duty at Guntakal station. On thinking it over, however, I am of opinion that it would be better, for the present at all events, not to depute a special European Inspector but to work the station at Guntakal through the Railway Inspector, Paupa Rao Nayudu, an experienced man. He has there an European head constable, and I have told him if necessary to call in a second European head constable from Bellary. He can also withdraw any men he finds he wants from the smaller stations on the Southern Mahratta Railway line and so re-inforce Guntakal sufficiently. He will work directly under the Deputy Inspector-General, Northern Range, to whom I have issued orders accordingly.

I trust this will meet with the approval of Government.

ORDER—No. 397 M., dated 6th March 1897.

The proposals of the Inspector-General of Police are approved.
