READ—the following paper :—

From Captain K. D. ERSKINE, Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Local and Municipal Department, dated Bangalore, 4th March 1897, No. 263-E.F.

In compliance with the request contained in letter from the Government of India, Home Department, No. 6-Sanitary—610, of the 20th ultimo, I am directed by the Chief Commissioner to forward a copy of the notification, No. 58, of the 21st idem, issued under the Epidemic Diseases Act.

ENCLOSURE.

NOTIFICATION by the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, No. 58, dated 21st February 1897.

Whereas certain parts of India are visited by, and the Province of Coorg is threatened with, an outbreak of a dangerous epidemic disease known as bubonic plague, the Officiating Chief Commissioner, in exercise of the powers delegated to him under section 2, sub-section (3), of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, by the Governor-General in Council [Notification of the Government of India, Home Department, No. 302 (Sanitary), dated the 4th February 1897] is pleased, under section 2, sub-section (2), clause (b), of the said Act, to prescribe the following temporary regulations for the inspection of persons entering Coorg by public road or otherwise, and the segregation in hospital, temporary accommodation or otherwise, of persons suspected by the Inspecting Officer of being infected with the bubonic plague :—

I. The following officers are appointed to be Inspecting Officers under the Act :—

The Civil Surgeon of Coorg, and the Hospital Assistants at Virajendrapett, Gonicopal, Siddapur, Somvarpett and Soonticoppa.

II. Each Inspecting Officer is empowered to inspect medically within the limits of Coorg any person arriving in Coorg by public road or otherwise who is suspected by him to be suffering from bubonic plague and to detain such person for the purposes of such inspection.

III. If after such inspection the Inspecting Officer still suspects that such person is infected with, or believes that he is actually suffering from, the bubonic plague, the Inspecting Officer is empowered to detain him in the temporary accommodation provided by Government or elsewhere, either for observation or for treatment as the case may be.

IV. The period of detention of a person under observation, that is to say, of a person suspected to be infected with the bubonic plague, is not to exceed ten days.

V. Any person disobeying the order of an Inspecting Officer under rule II or rule III as above is liable to be prosecuted under section 188, Indian Penal Code, and on conviction to be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

ORDER—No. 424 M., dated 8th March 1897.

The notification issued by the Chief Commissioner of Coorg will be republished in the Fort St. George Gazette.
