The peti. is in the enjoyment of a piece of land to the south of his house in Palnitown. He purchases this ground from one Ponnappan on the 24th October 1897. The deed of sale has ~~also~~ been registered in the Sub-Registrar's Office, Palni. The peti. learnt at the recent Town Survey that this land has been registered in the name of one Guruswami Thevar who has no right whatever to the land and that the land tax has been collected from him. On the 6th December last on the 9th instant the peti. presented petition to the Municipal Council protesting against the above and submitted also a copy of the Sale deed referred to above. But as the above Guruswami Thevar is the Town rubbish cart contractor no notice was taken of the peti. complaint. The peti. therefore prays that the Chairman of the Palni Municipal Council may be directed to have the ground in question included in the same number as the one to the north of it enjoyed by the peti. & to collect the land tax thereon from the peti.
