The Petre's village is 5 furlongs distant from the town. The Petres are very poor and live by cooly work. They were residing in thatched houses but as these were subject to danger by fire they had to raise loans and build small tiled houses. The Trichinopoly Municipal Council has imposed house tax & water tax upon the Petres. The Petres submit that they do not enjoy the benefit of the introduction of the pipe as they are low caste people and are not allowed by the high caste men to use the pipe water. Half the number of houses that have been taxed continue to be thatched. The Petres therefore pray that the taxes in question may be cancelled & that the Municipal Council may be directed to refund the amount that has been collected from the Petres.
