ENCLOSURES.

Subject.

Kafiat executed by Chhataparti Ramaraju of Anakapalli.

I own a permanent Settlement inam of 8 acres in extent - 4 wet & 4 dry in the Anakapalli Village, subject to an annual quitrent of Rs 4-12-0; for which the inam fatta No. 1561 was issued. The Municipality of Anakapalli acquired a portion of the above inam measuring 23 cents and paid me Rs 42-11-9 for compensation. When I represented to the then Head Assistant Collector that the land forms the only source of my subsistence and that depositing sweepings near my land makes it unattractive to intending lessees, the Head Assistant Collector was thereupon pleased to inform me that the above portion would be released in 5 or 6 months, and I agreed to it. But the land has not been relinquished to me. I cannot again part with a portion of similar extent from my inam to the Municipality for a rubbish depot. I am a man of large family and have no other means of living than the above land. I therefore pray that my land may not be acquired.

 I wrote an arzi to the above effect to the Chairman but did not get any reply. I contracted a large debt and sold away the 4 acres of the wet portion of my inam to Potansetty Reddanna. The inam patta was given away to him. The dry portion of my inam now in my enjoyment brings in an annual list of Rs 34.
