The Chairman of the Tamil-malai Municipal Council has assessed the peths to a profession tax of Rs 6. The peths thereupon presented a petition to him pro-testing against the above & were required to present themselves in the before the Council on the 6th instant which they did.
Five members were then present in the Council, 3 officials & 2 natives of the place. The latter who were alone competent to express an opinion as to the peths ability to pay & recommended that the tax of Rs 6 should be lessened. But as the others were for the increased amount the Chairman's order imposing the same was confirmed. The peths therefore pray that orders may issue for a consideration of their case & in a full meeting of the Council and for a reduction of the tax in ques-tion imposed for 96-97.
