REFERENCE

This office letter No.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith an extract from the Audit note (para 18) on the account of this Municipality for 1895-96 and the Council's reply thereto, I have the honor to inform you that a calf man is employed on Rs 2-8-0 per mensem to watch the vaccinated calves and his pay has been hitherto met from the allotments under vaccine contingencies and no objection was taken to this by the auditor's checking municipal till now. In para 18 of his last Audit notes, the district municipalities' auditor objects to this procedure and remarks that this item of expenditure should be charged under vaccine establishment and the sanction of Government should be obtained for the same:

2. The necessary application for allotment of funds and the Proposition Statement are herewith forwarded.

3. I have therefore the honor to request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the super-intendence of the calfman:

I have the honor to be
Sir
your most obedient servant

H. A. Nelson.
