THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Local and Municipal DEPARTMENT,

SIR,

In reply to G. O. No. 1956 M. (Miscellaneous) dated 13th November 1896 regarding the title of the Intoxicum Municipality to a plot of land proposed to be sold to Messrs. Milligan and Co., I have the honor to state that the Chairman of the Municipal Council has written to say that there are no records in the Municipal office to prove that the site was vested in the Municipality. It was at first urged that the site formed part of the land transferred to the Municipality under the the authority of L.O. no 805 dated 26th May 1875, Revenue. A brief description of the land then transferred is available in the order issued to the Karnam for noting the transfer in the village accounts. The present Karnam Gunas-tah of Milavittan village who was Karnam of Inticorin at the time of transfer localizes the plots transferred to be in other parts of the town and is positive that the site in question did not form part of the land transferred in 1875.

2. As the site appears not to have been transferred to the Municipality, the Council's recommendation to sell it to Messrs Milligan and Leo has to be treated as withdrawn.

3. The question of granting the site will be disposed of by me under the ordinary rules for the grant of village site lands on receipt receipt of formal application from Messrs Milligan and Leo.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Wm. H. H. H.
