Sir

With reference to your telegram of the 15th instant I have the honor to state that they have finished the shed in the old site that was in course of construction while you were here. As for the others they are stacking the materials in the new site fixed by you and have marked the sites and dimensions for the different sheds. The posts will be fixed today. The Jahoildar who is at present placed in charge of the works says that he hopes to get them ready in the course of a week. The Jahoildar received a telegram from the Collector of Anantapur this morning to take charge of six tents from the rest camp and pitch them in the site chosen by you.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant

H.W. Hakim Shus
Surgeon Major.
