P.S.

I have since seen the place and there appears to be no Order objection to any sanction for the alienation of the site which is now a sort of nuisance in the heart of the Town and used as a latrine by the neighbours. The lanes to the South of the site marked on the plan have direct access to the main streets.
Both on the west and South.

Forwarded. The owners of sites adjoining the lane and the temple compound have no objection to the alienation of the lane. Their statements are also enclosed.

Sir,

The residents of Jagannairpur applied to the Council for the alienation of a lane adjoining to the Viskulayam temple for the extension of the temple compound.
The Council at the meetings dated 29th September and 31st October 1896 approved of the alienation on payment of an annual rent of 8 annas, considering that it will not interfere with the convenience of the public as the sites on both sides of the lane mainly belong to the temple authorities. I therefore request that the Government will be pleased to and on the proposed alienation.

Copies of the Council's resolutions above referred to, the collective petition of the residents of Jagannaispur and a sketch of the land in question are enclosed.

I have the honor to be Very respectfully,

Your most obedient servant

Chennappaiah
Chairman.
