GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

Telegram from Messrs. SHEPHERD AND Co., Mangalore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 11th March 1897.

Civil Surgeon here has instituted seven days' quarantine against passengers arriving from Bombay, Goa and North Canara ports. We consider time excessive and especially hard on North Canara passengers as no infectious disease there. In interests of travelling public as well as our own we pray that conditions may be modified.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
11th March 1897.

(Signed) A. R. KNAPP,
Ag. Assistant Secretary.

Telegram from the Collector, South Canara, dated Mangalore, 15th March 1897.

Your telegram fourteenth. Doctor says if Government exclude North Canara from prohibited ports then twenty-four hours sufficient. Otherwise his opinion necessary enforce seven days.

ORDER—No. 274, Marine, dated 20th March 1897.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is of opinion that there is no need to detain healthy persons at all, provided they can be certainly kept under continuous observation for 7 or 8 days after landing, so that there may be no difficulty in immediately segregating them if plague should develop in them. If persons cannot give certain addresses, the Doctor would exercise a wise discretion in detaining them for a few days. These observations are based on the assumption that the vessels containing the "healthy persons" referred to are free from plague, and that accommodation on shore is ready for detained passengers.
