ment for carrying out the special work of revising the House-tax Registers entrusted to me in Government order dated 23rd March 1897

1897. No 1570. Revenue Miscellaneous.

R.D. The Head clerk who should be a man of some official experience will be required to carry on the official Correspondence and the 2nd clerk will be more or less employed in issuing the notices contemplated in Section 69(2) of Act IV of 1884 to the owners of houses the tax on which will have to be raised. For the Head clerk's place, C. Muthusami Aiyar who worked under me during the Mahamakhham festival, may be appointed, and for the 2nd clerk's place, I propose to appoint one under graduate by name R. Ranganatha Rao who writes a neat hand and who also worked under me as a Mahamakhham clerk. Jambulingam Pillai, a peon of the Collector's office has already been ordered to do duty under under me by the Personal Assistant Deputy Collector and I request that the other peon and the Sweeper may be sent from Vallam or that I may be permitted to make the appointments.

2. The town consists of about 10,000 houses and the Chairman estimates that the work of revising the House-tax will take up not less than three months. I am also of the same opinion, but I shall try my best to finish the work as expeditiously as possible.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Copy of a Communication from the Chairman, Municipal Council, Kumbakonam, No 301, dated 30th March 1897 to the Deputy Collector on special duty, Kumbakonam.

In reply to your letter No A of this date, I have the honour to inform you that Venkatarama Aiyar who is in charge of the House-Tax Registers is also entrusted with other work and that till the preparation and submission of the Annual report due in the Government office on the 1st June next, neither his services nor the services of any other clerk can be spared. He will, however, prepare extracts from the House-Tax Registers and also from the Municipal Department, Madras.

2 and send the same to you and will also attend on you whenever you require his presence. I request therefore that the necessary establishment may be entertained by you. I think that the work connected with the revision of House Tax Registers and the issue of notices will keep two clerks fully employed for a period of not less than three months. I am quite prepared to place all the Bill Collectors for work under you, without prejudice to the work of Collection. Till the end of April, they will be able to devote their mornings only to House Tax revision work, and thereafter they can be almost solely employed on this work.
