Kotta Kannyaya of Ankapalli

A portion of my vacant house site was measured for the extension of the Kotavaridhi road. If I were to give up the whole land thus measured, I shall be put to much inconvenience. I have no other place to keep my cattle.

I have four cocoanut trees on the land measured. I get annually Rs 4 from the usufruct. I agree to the land beyond the trees being taken. But I don't like to part with the land on which the trees stand. For that land I have no sale deed in,

I don't agree to part with portion of my house site measured for the extension of Rotunaidu's road on receipt of compensation. The portion measured is the privy place of females for my house. If it be taken, I shall be much inconvenienced. My ancestors acquired it. I have no sale deed. My ancestors laid out in it, stone foundations at a cost of Rs 30.
