SUBJECT.

Office This is too bad. The date proposed is 20th & the office do not take it till the 21st. It is obvious the file should have been disposed of immediately on receipt. I have spoken more than once of the necessity of a more careful description of files when received. The Chairman Mr. Cuddalore has now let (refused) to be through the Col. of S. Aot.

Forwarding letter from the Ch. Mr. C., Cuddalore, requesting sanction for fixing the 20th April as the date within which the list of electors for the Multy should be prepared & delivered to the Chairman for (1546 + 1546 m) 6th Dec. Your no. Cuddalore electors list. If expedient date 20th April not acted upon please report and the date for sanction. 8/2 13/6/97

No. 721

From,

Dr. A. R. C. S. Srinivasa Rao Aiyar, Chairman, Municipal Council, Suddalore.

To,

The Secretary to Government
Local and Municipal Department, Madras.

Sir,

With reference to rule 7 of the rules sanctioned for election of councillors by wards, I have the honor to request the sanction of Government for the electors' lists prepared for this Municipality in October 1895 being revised in April next for the reasons given below:-

2. Under G.O., dated 28 September 1893, No. 1308 Dr. Dis., these lists were revised every year in the month of October, but owing to the audit of the accounts for 1895-96 which was conducted about that time and the heavy work imposed on the office by reason of the revision of the house tax register, the lists prepared in 1895 were, by an oversight, not revised in October last. But for a vacancy which would occur next month and to others

there in July next among the elected members in the Council, I would postpone the revision of the lists in question till the month of October following.

Under the circumstances, I beg the Government will be pleased to accord their sanction for the electors' lists for 1897 and future years being prepared and delivered to me on or before the 20 April. In anticipation of sanction, I shall at the meeting of the Council to be held tomorrow morning, appoint under rule 7 of the Election rules, Councillors to revise the electors' lists prepared in October 1895.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
Frederick
