Sir,

I am directed by His Honour the Officer Administering the Government to inform you that Dr. Henry Lorans, Medical Inspector of this Colony, has been commissioned by this Government to visit Bombay and other Districts in India to study the plague, its manifestations and the best means of preserving this Colony against its introduction, and to acquire a thorough knowledge in detail of the sanitary measures and precautions taken by the Authorities of the several Districts he may visit.

The Officer Administering the Government desires me to say that He will feel very greatly obliged if you will kindly give such directions as may be in your power to facilitate the mission on which

The Secretary to the Government of MADRAS.

which Dr. Lorans has been sent.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Douglas Young
a. Colonial Secretary.
