With reference to G. C dated 3rd August 1897
No 817 I have the honor to submit the following:—

2. Para (2). The Security furnished in 1890 by the office Manager in landed property to the extent of Rs 500 had not been shown in the accounts till 1895-96. This was brought into accounts during the audit of that year's accounts, while it was entered in the Cash Book during 1896-97. Hence the difference.

3. Para (3) :- The subsequent collection of the amounts referred to, accounts for the difference. Besides, there is no demand for these items of revenue, the actual collections being as far as possible taken as the demand.
