GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., Mis. No. 1801, Judicial, dated 14th November 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting the District Magistrate, Salem, to submit a detailed estimate of the financial results of the introduction of the Hackney Carriage Act into Salem and a table of fares to be prescribed under section 31 of the Act.

READ—also the following papers:—

From the District Magistrate of Salem, dated 8th April 1897, No. 414-M.

ABSTRACT.—Forwarding table of fares and copy of the letter from the Superintendent of Police, Salem, showing the financial results of the introduction of the Hackney Carriage Act into Salem.

From M. HAMMICK, Esq., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 19th May 1897, No. 1771.

With reference to endorsement, No. 941, Judicial, dated 30th April 1897, on C. No. 1587, I have the honour to say that I think the establishment recommended by Mr. Mullaly and the payment proposed for the Inspector might be tried. If the number of conveyances does not come up to expectation, the establishment can be subsequently altered.

From C. H. MOUNSEY, Esq., Acting Collector and District Magistrate of Salem, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 9th August 1897, Ref. on No. 566-M.R.

Adverting to G.O., Mis. No. 1801, Judicial, dated 14th November 1896, regarding the introduction of the Hackney Carriage Act III of 1879 into the Salem town and to your memorandum, No. 127, Judicial, dated 15th June 1897, on the subject, I have the honour to report as follows.

2. The total number of carts according to municipal registers is—

At the end of July 1897

Deduct the number owned by owners themselves and the number likely to be rejected, being unfit for license

The net number likely to be registered is

Carts without springs.	Vehicles with springs.
841	178
241	78
600	100

841 178

241 78

600 100

3. The estimated receipts under section 10 of the Act is as follows:—

600 carts at As. 4 each	Rs.
100 vehicles on springs at As. 8 each	Rs.	150
	Rs.	50
Total	Rs.	200

The estimated receipts under section 18 of the Act is for 700 drivers at Re. 1 each

The estimated sale-proceeds of the printed table of fares at As. 2 each under section 31 of the Act during the first year will be about

Thus the total estimated income during the first year is about Rs. 950 and in the subsequent years about Rs. 900.

4. The estimated expenditure will be as follows:—

I consider the entertainment of the following establishment is necessary:—

One third-grade head constable	Rs.
„ first-class constable	Rs.	16
„ second-class constable	Rs.	8
	Rs.	7
Total	Rs.	31

An allowance of Rs. 10 per mensem should be paid to the Town Inspector for working the Act.

The estimated cost of badges will be, at As. 6 each for 700 badges, about Rs. 280.

Contingencies, which will include purchase of tin plates, printing registers, licences and tables of fares, &c., Rs. 100.

Thus the annual expenses may then be for the first year as follows:—

Establishment	Rs.
Inspector's allowances	Rs.	372
Purchase of badges	Rs.	120
Contingencies	Rs.	280
	Rs.	100
Total	Rs.	872

and in the subsequent years about Rs. 600.

5. A table of fares prescribed under section 31 of the Act is herein enclosed as directed, and I recommend that the working of the Act be placed under the Salem Town Inspector of Police and the Superintendent of Police for the time being be appointed as Commissioner under section 50 of the Act.

ORDER—No. 1246, Judicial, dated 30th August 1897.

The proposal to extend the Hackney Carriage Act, 1879 (Madras), to the Salem Municipality is approved.

2. The police establishment detailed in paragraph 4 of the District Magistrate's letter may be entertained when the Act is brought into force and should, as proposed, be placed under the supervision of the Town Inspector of Police, Salem, who will be allowed a local allowance of Rs. 10 per mensem for his extra duties.

3. The Superintendent of Police, Salem, will be appointed to perform the duties imposed by the Act on the Commissioner of Police.

4. The District Magistrate should submit a second statement, on the lines of that contained on page 7 of G.O., No. 357, Judicial, dated 12th March 1897 (copy enclosed), prescribing rates for the hire of the different descriptions of carriages by time and the rate of speed at which they are expected to travel, &c. Upon receipt, this statement and the table of fares will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

5. The following notifications will be published in the Fort St. George and Salem District Gazettes:—

NOTIFICATION I.

In exercise of the power conferred by section 1 of the Madras Hackney Carriage Act, 1879, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to extend, with effect from the 1st November 1897, the provisions of the said Act to the Salem Municipality in the district of Salem.

NOTIFICATION II.

Under the provisions of section 50 of the Madras Hackney Carriage Act, 1879, His Excellency the Governor in Council appoints the Superintendent of Police, Salem, to perform the duties imposed by the Act upon the Commissioner of Police, Madras.
