Transfer of Prince of Wales Choultry at Bellary to the Municipal Council of Bellary

FOR ORDERS.

See Colln letter in fo 1272m I 6-8-95

In commemoration of the last visit of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales to Bellary, the inhabitants of that town erected a choultry from funds raised by public subscriptions and a private gentleman furnished the building with doors and raised a compound wall at his own cost. In June 1895, the Collector of Bellary stated that the choultry was spacious and much used by the people, but that it was in bad condition, as there were no funds to repair it, and requested that the choultry might be vested in the Municipal Council of Bellary under Section of Act IV of 1884, as it was willing to take it up and maintain it.
