READ—the following paper:—

From J. G. HORSFALL, Esq., President, District Board, Ganjam, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Chatrapur, 25th November 1885, No. 1626.

With reference to G.O., dated 23rd ultimo, No. 930 L.F., Financial, I have the honor to state that the schedule of proposed unions was prepared carefully by the District Board, and, as now published, requires no correction.

2. Of the nine places declared unions, all but Aska, Sompét and Báruva are Government villages, of which Chatrapur*

* Sitarampuram, Gedelanaidupalem and Gopálpur.
† Borigevalasa, Boddavalasa, Gottipalli and Satyavaram.

and Narsannapet† are made up of more than one revenue village, as indicated in the margin. To begin with, it is considered desirable to form unions of single villages as far as possible, and the District Board kept this fact in view when they recommended the villages that they did. The reasons have been stated in my letter recorded in the Government Order under reference. I am not in favor of adding any villages to those fixed upon.

3. I strongly recommend that Russellkonda and Ichápur be added to the list of unions. Russellkonda is the head-quarter of the General Deputy Collector, Forest officer, tahsildar, and has a district jail.

Ichápur ‡ has a population of over 1,543, and is the head-quarters of a deputy tahsildar. It is situated on the high road, Madras to Bengal.

‡ Including Rattakanna.

4. I note that no taluk boards are selected for this district, and that only nine out of the thirty-seven unions recommended are entered in the list.

5. I return the list, entering in red ink the additions now proposed by me.

In Ganjam, I recommend the postponement of the levy of house-tax for the present, in consequence of total loss of crops this year.
