18TH AUGUST 1886, No. 813 M., FINANCIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From J. A. JONES, Esq., Acting President, Municipal Commission, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 16th July 1886, G. No. 334.

I have the honor to forward herewith a copy of bye-laws framed under the provisions of section 413 (e), (f), (g) and (h) of Act I of 1884 as passed by the commissioners at their meeting of 13th July 1886.

2. The bye-laws have been framed in view of the Advocate-General's opinion communicated to the commissioners by G.O., dated 19th April 1886, Mis. No. 365 M.

3. As I stated at the meeting, I consider the bye-laws framed under section 413 (f) inadequate, and I agree with the opinions expressed in Mr. Mackenzie's letter to you, dated the 4th March 1886, No. 806. These particular bye-laws are, however, in advance of those previously sent up for sanction, and I therefore recommend them for the approval of Government.

4. If Government approve of all the bye-laws as now drafted, I beg that, under the provisions of section 415 of Act I of 1884, they may be published four times in the Fort St. George Gazette in the English, Tamil, Telugu, and Hindustani languages.

5. Under section 417 of Act I of 1884, when the above bye-laws come into force, the following bye-laws will be superseded:—

(1)	Bye-law published in Fort St. George Gazette , 1st June 1869.
(2)	Do. do. 14th March 1871.
(3)	Do. do. 4th „ 1873.
(4)	Do. do. 16th Dec. 1879.

ENCLOSURE.

Bye-laws drafted by the Committee on the 25th May 1886 with reference to the Advocate-General's opinion.

Sections 212 to 224.

Under the powers given by Section 413 (e).

Any person who, without the permission of the President, takes more than domestic from a public fountain, stand-pipe or tap, or from any commissioners under section 223, or who bathes or who washes any cloth, vessel, animal or vehicle at a pipe or tap, or who remains without reasonable excuse near a public fountain to the annoyance of those who come to draw water, shall be liable to a fine of not less than one rupee.

Sections 262 to 303.

Under the powers given by Section 413 (f).

All upstairs houses having any room of a greater area than the buildings required to be furnished with a water supply of not less than one inch, and shall show in detail the plan of the house.

of all walls, of the upstairs portion of the building and of the building supporting it, the sizes of all timber works in the floor and roof, the dimensions of doors and windows, and a statement of the materials of which it is proposed to construct the buildings.

2. In the case of all houses the plans shall show in detail the levels of the drains and details of all privies and out-houses.

3. No building proposed to be erected in any of the following streets shall be inferior to or out of symmetry with the elevation of adjacent buildings :—
