Sir,

In enclosing an extract from the Proceedings of the Municipal Council dated 16.9.86, and the statement of the case referred to therein, I have the honor to request the favor of your moving Government to obtain the opinion of the Advocate General on the subject to enable this Board to dispose of the matter finally.

I remain the honor to be
Yours obedient servant

(1) They are not professional money lenders and they do not make their living by money-lending (Vide section 53 of Act IX of 1882)

It is suggested by some of the Formallors that these men though they have not lent money this year are still liable for the tax as they get a profit by this money lending in the shape of interest and this interest accrues to them every day of the year until the money is repaid. Hence they can be said to exercise a profession during the 1st half of this year for sixty day. Consecutively
