DISTRICT BOARD'S OFFICE,

VIZAGAPATAM.

Dated 26 March 1891.

From

W. A. WILLOCK ESQ.

PRESIDENT, DISTRICT BOARD.

VIZAGAPATAM.

To

The Honorable J. J. Puce

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT,

MADRAS.

SIR,

A brahmin widow named Jallura Karsubayamma by a will executed on the 28th December 1866 devoted her property after her death to the establishment and maintenance of a brahmin choultry in Vizagapatam.
The property in question consisted of Government promissory note for Rs 3000, a bond for Rs 600 due to her by a private party, gold se valued at Rs 400 certain brass utensils an upstairs building valued at Rs 1500 and the reversionary right to another tiled building valued valued at about Rs 1,000 on death of the occupant who is still alive.

In 1869 she appointed K. Sadasiva-Parabrahmam as sole executor of her will after her death. She died shortly afterwards. Owing to mismanagement on the part of the trustee much of the property has been lost and the object to which it was devoted has not been properly provided for and all that now remains in the hands of the present trustee K. Prakasam Pantulu is the upstairs building, the reversionary right to the second house, a sum of Rs 1381-2-3 in cash and four bonds for Rs 677. The last however may be regarded as unrecoverable.
The trustee has requested the Vizaga-patam Taluk Board to take the choultry under its management.
2. There are now in Vizaga patam five choultrys or musafarkhanas maintained by the municipality, and two

3
two kept by private individuals available for brahmins. The Taluk Board therefore propose to take over the choultry on the understanding that no more than the income to be derived from its funds (which will be about Rs 52 per annum) are to be expended on it without the approval of the District Board. It will be reserved for the use of Brahmin travellers in accordance with the intention of the founder.
3. The present occupant of the adjoining building the reversionary right to which belongs to the Chattram is an old brahmin widow. It is not probable that the succession of the trustee to it will be long deferred and when this happens the Taluk Board intends to utilize it for the accommodation of other classes.
4. I request that Government may sanction the assumption of the charge of the institution by the Taluk Board.
Copies of its resolution on the subject and

and that of the District Board are enclosed. The trustee objects to handing the institution over to the municipal Council as he has more faith in the management of the Talug Board.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant,

S. Ramamurti

for President District Board.
