GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), Mis. No. 1098, dated 23rd March 1897:—

Read—the following letter from J. TWIGG, Esq., Collector of Madura, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated 27th February 1897, R.C. No. 2592-Genl. of 1896:—

I have the honour to submit the following report regarding the mismanagement of Vellayan Servai's chattram at Tiruppullani and of the village of Kanjirangudi in the Ramnad zemindari forming the endowment of the chattram.

2. It appears from the inam register that the whole village was granted as an inam, subject to the payment to the Zemindar of Ramnad of a jodi of Rs. 125-15-5, and on condition of the inamdar keeping up the charity of feeding Brahmins on Dwadasi days in the chattram referred to above. The inam was confirmed on its then tenure in 1864 (vide Inam Commissioner's title-deed No. 693, dated 2nd June 1864). The supervision of this chattram has been since transferred to the Local Board under Board's Proceedings, Mis. No. 558, dated 1st February 1896.

3. A moiety of the village is now in the enjoyment of Venkateswara Aiyar, a son of Jagannatha Aiyar, who was one of the trustees of the charity at the time of the Inam Settlement, the other half of the village having been alienated to a Mussalman of Kilakarai. The Deputy Tahsildar of Ramnad made a local inspection and inquiry. It appears that the chattram is not now in existence and no charity is conducted. The charity building which was a tiled building has been converted into a thatched building, now under the occupation of Venkateswara Aiyar above referred to, who denies that it ever was a chattram, and asserts that the village was granted solely for the maintenance of his family. The Mussalman of Kilakarai asserts that the moiety of the village in his possession passed through several hands, one of whom purchased it in a court's sale and that it does not form a part of the endowment of the chattram. It is unnecessary to consider these objections in the face of the Inam Commissioner's settlement.

4. I therefore beg to recommend that the whole of the inam may be resumed and fully assessed and the proceeds made over to the Taluk Board, Ramnad, which is willing to utilize it first for repairing the tanks of the endowed village, then for the repair of the chattram building and finally, when funds permit, to feed Brahmins on Dwadasi days (vide copy of the Taluk Board's resolution herein enclosed).
