ORDER—dated 15th April 1887, No. 485, Financial.

With his letter recorded in G.O., No. 881, dated 1st September 1886, Financial, the Accountant-General submitted a further list (A) of permanent public endowments, and a list (B) of public endowments whose administrators do not consider them permanent.

2. In regard to List A, heads of departments were consulted as to additional trustees to be appointed for the administration of the funds, as required by the Government of India. Replies have now been received, and the recommendations made are embodied in the revised list attached to these proceedings, which also includes two additional endowments since brought forward by the Accountant-General.

3. The endowments in question are hereby declared to be public endowments, which should not be sold nor given up without the formal sanction of Government.

4. The list, with a copy of these proceedings, will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

5. As suggested by the Government Solicitor, copies of the deeds of gift or trust creating the endowments should, wherever possible, be furnished to the trustees, who will be responsible for the proper application of the money.

6. The Government authorise the transfer to the trustees of the Rock Fort Pagoda, Trichinopoly, of the funds referred to in paragraph 13 of the Accountant-General's letter, No. 315, dated 4th February 1887, to be applied to the construction of a mantapam in the temple.

7. As regards the endowments shown in List B, attached to G.O., No. 881, dated 1st September 1886, the Government Solicitor does not see how the Government can interfere in their administration without the consent of their present administrators, which is withheld. These endowments are no permanent, and where they are likely to be treated as permanent, there is a large body of trustees, not Government officers. No action need be taken in regard to them.
