Enclosure.

SIR,

With reference to Endorsement No. 492 dated 15th April 1897, I have the honour to state that I see no reason why the Collector of South Canara should hold the opinion that it is unnecessary for him to exercise the Regulations referred to, or, in other words, to believe that the circumstances of South Canara are such as to dictate no necessity for special precautions. On the opposite, the frequency with which it has been reported that persons have fled from towns in the Bombay Presidency to places on the West Coast of this Presidency would render it but reasonable that much watchfulness be exercised, and that any action that may be required in an emergency be requisite should be legally valid by timely notification. Thus, granting safeguarding the Mangalore Port be carefully conducted, as I believe it is, there are obvious advantages in it being arranged that Regulations

1, 3, 8, 10, 11, 12 and 13 are made applicable to the Municipality of Mangalore, and to the large towns on the Main Road along the Coast.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Surgeon Lieutenant Colonel,
Sanitary Commissioner for Madras.
