GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 15th June 1897.

No. 3285—2425-P.—His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to cancel Rule 26 of the general rules under Act III of 1897, published in Government Notification No. 1728—1291-P., dated 29th March last, and to make the following new rule, which should be substituted for Rule 29 of those rules:—

Plague Authorities specially appointed by a Commissioner for this purpose are authorized to prevent the passage of suspicious persons from any town, village or local area, or into any town, village or local area to which this rule may be applied by the Commissioner, unless such persons have been detained in a place of observation for a period prescribed by the Commissioner, and unless if arrangements for disinfection of their clothing, baggage, &c., have been made under the Commissioner's orders such disinfection has been effected. Such Plague Authorities shall have the widest discretionary power, subject to the general or special orders of the Commissioner, to decide what person shall be considered "suspicious" for the purposes of this rule. So long as he remains in a place of observation under this rule no person shall be allowed to communicate, except with the permission of the Plague Authority, with persons outside the limits of the place. He shall obey such orders as may be issued by the Plague Authority for the cleanliness or protection from infection of the persons, property or quarters of the persons detained.

By order of His Excellency the Right
Honourable the Governor in Council,

J. DEC. ATKINS,
Secretary to Government.
