Read the following:-

Letter from the President, District Board, Cuddapah, No. 1138/Ver. of 96, dated 29th September 1896, submitting for the orders of Government a claim preferred by the Superintending Engineer, III Circle, for payment of percentage charges on the value of certain tools purchased from the P.W.D. for the use of the Local Fund Board.

Endorsement thereon in the Local and Municipal Department, No. 1246, dated 30th October 1896.

Office Note from the Examiner, P.W. Accounts, No. 4123 D/A., dated 30th November 1896:-

Your Office Note No. 4257 C., dated 19th November 1896:-

From the correspondence it appears that the tools sold were surplus tools. No percentage charges ought to have been charged to the Local Fund Department. The 10 per cent on the value of tools already recovered may be refunded.

Order thereon: No. 3548 W., dated 11 December 1896.

The tools sold to the District Board being surplus stock, no centage charges should have been demanded. Such charges as have already been recovered should be refunded.
