Sir,

In reply to G. O. No. 2623 M. Ind, of 26th November 1897, I have the honor to report that I did not report the supposed cases of plague because I had the strongest doubts from such particulars as had reached me that the outbreak was plague and waited therefore for proper information.
On receipt of the first report I telegraphed to the St. Medical and Sanitary officer to proceed to the place and investigate. I beg to refer to the terms of my first telegram to Government dated 23rd November 1897.
