Misc ORDER. no. 2339 M of 18/12/97

In the circumstances stated by the Collector, the Government does not consider it necessary that a Magistrate should be stationed at Kondapalli for the trial of offences under the Plague regulations, as such cases can easily be sent up to Bezwada. Nor does a Magistrate's presence on the Railway platform during the examination of passengers seem to be necessary as the Medical Officer has ample power to detain the offender until the Magistrate at Bezwada has issued process.

SIB.

I have the honor to remind the Government that in L.C. No 569 Mo dated 16th March 1897 Berzгада was at first appointed as the Plaque inspection station for passengers arriving by train from His Highness the Mirjam's Dominions. On the representation of Mr. Atkinson that it would be easy for passengers to make inspection by alighting at Hondapalle, the Government was pleased in L.C. No 709 Mo dated 26th March 1897 to appoint Hondapalle as the inspection station in the undermentioned that a Magistrate would be found for it.

2. Mr. Atkinson proposed to place the then Assistant Magistrate, the Deputy Magistrate Mr. R. V. Srinivasa Arjangan Arjungal who is in this District on probation, and the Additional Head Quarters Deputy Magistrate in charge of Kondapalle for a period of one month each in rotation. Accordingly the Assistant Magistrate, Mr. Loderidge was in charge from the 7th to the 21st April and Mr. R. V. Srinivasa Arjangan from that date till the inspection station was transferred to Berwada under G. O. No. 1481 No. dated 25th June 1897. When under G. O. No. 1639 No. dated 23rd July 1897 the inspection station was again transferred to Kondapalle, Mr. Srinivasa Arjangan was again placed in charge, and is still there. It was found impossible to spare the services of the Additional Head Quarters Deputy Magistrate, and there was no Assistant Magistrate on duty in the District till the 16th October, when Mr. Bryant was relieved of the Head Assistantship. He had however to go through the plan drawing course prescribed in G. O. Revenue No. 463/Miscellaneous dated 3rd September 1897 at Berwada and has completed that course only during the last few days.

3. I cannot however hope to retain Mr. Bryant beyond the commencement of the year: he may then in ordinary course of things expect an acting Head Assistantship. It is still as impossible as ever to spare any other Deputy Magistrate, and therefore when Mr. Bryant goes, the only Magistrate available will be Mr. R. V. Srinivasa Arjangan.

4. The effect of stationing Mr. Srinivasa Arjangan at Kondapalle is that it is most difficult to give him that training which I am expected to give him in general work, and especially in Revenue work, and if he is to be done justice to, he ought to be brought in to Masulipatam. I should like to be in a position to do this, if possible, when he returns from Madras after his examination in January.

5. I would therefore ask whether the Government still considers it essential that a Magistrate should reside at Kondapalle and be present on the platform on the arrival of all trains from Hyderabad. So far as the keeping of order is concerned, the Police Guard at Kondapalle ought to be able to ensure this, and any cases for trial sent in to Berwada. No cases have so far occurred, and moreover the only cases likely to occur would be those punishable under section 188 of the Penal Code, cases which Mr. Srinivasa Arjangan being only a 3rd class Magistrate, has no jurisdiction to try.

6. If the Government considers that a Magistrate should be present, I would suggest that the Judicial Department be moved to sanction either the temporary transfer of the Head Quarters of the Stationary Sub Magistrate of Berwada to Mondapalle, or the entertainment of a Special Magistrate.

 As the bulk of the Stationary Sub Magistrates' work comes from Berwada and its immediate neighbourhood, the latter course seems to me the preferable of the two, and there ^{are} several retired Sub Magistrates, who I have no doubt would be glad to accept the appointment for a small addition to their pension. The case would be similar to the entertainment of Surgeon Captain Gilloon,
 the special medical officer at Mondapalle,
 who is a pensioner.
 7. I beg the favor of early orders.
