FOR ORDERS.

Kolatur South being a station to the South of the Trichinopoly junction, that is, on the line from Trichinopoly to Madura, the issue of tickets to it was not recommended for prohibition in the telegram to the Government of India in para 3 of G.O. No 2705 M dated 6th December 1897, as — pilgrims from Northern India, the Bombay Presidency or Hyderabad, which are the parts affected by plague, are not likely to enter Tiruanga from the Madura side. The Vamanur and Tiruvarambur stations were proposed in addition to the Trichinopoly Fort and junction stations, as pilgrims might go there either by the Erode or the Chingleput and Tanjore side.

The following draft order is therefore submitted for approval:—

Order No. 2854 M. Mis d/22.12.1897

The Government does not consider it necessary to prohibit the issue of tickets to Kolatur South on the line from Trichinopoly to Madura, as pilgrims from the Plague affected parts are not likely to enter Tirurangam from that side.

TRAFFIC CIRCULAR NO. G. 848.

Pilgrims to Vykunta Yakadasi festival at Srirangam.

With reference to my "all Stations" Message No. K. 980 of 7th instant, the Government of India (Home Department) now cancels the Instruction therein given and sanctions the following in its stead.

Sale of Railway tickets to Trichinopoly (Junction and Fort), Tiruverumbur and Elamanur is prohibited, from the 10th to 24th instant, at any station except those in the Madras Presidency, Mysore, Bengal and Assam, to any pilgrims or other persons intending or believed to be intending to attend the Vykunta Yakadasi festival.

Stations must, therefore, act in accordance with the Telegraphic order No. K. 984 sent to them yesterday from this office and book as usual to Trichinopoly (Junction and Fort), Tiruverumbur and Elamanur stations.

These stations should report to me at once any cases of pilgrims arriving thereat with tickets from railway stations prohibited, under this ruling, from issuing such tickets.
