ORDER—No. 791, Financial, dated 11th October 1895.

The work of distributing publications which now falls on the Chief Secretariat is very heavy, and as the amalgamation of the libraries of the Chief and Revenue Secretariats is at present being carried out, it becomes necessary to consider where this work can properly be reduced. In the case of some publications the major portion of the copies received in the Secretariat is at present distributed to a single office. The distribution of such publications could be best undertaken by the office which receives the bulk of the copies.

2. The Board of Revenue (Land Revenue) will in future distribute—

(i) *The Selections from the Records of the Government of India—
Report on publications issued and registered in the several Provinces in the British India.*

7. (xiii) Indian Appeals—Cases in the Privy Council on appeal from the East Indies.—Twenty-five copies of this publication are received in the Chief Secretariat, of which twenty-one are distributed to District Judges. The Hon'ble the Judges of the High Court will be requested to be so good as to state whether the copies for District Judges may in future be sent to the Registrar for distribution.

8. The distribution of all publications of the Madras Government issuing from the Chief and Revenue Secretariats, of India and Madras Acts, and of Addenda and Corrigenda to the Civil Service Regulations will, with effect from the 1st November 1895, be transferred to the Government Press, which will be supplied with the necessary distribution lists. For the additional work that will devolve on the Press the entertainment of the marginally-noted establishment is sanctioned. The Superintendent will submit the necessary proposition statement.

9. Occasional publications supplied by the India Office, the Government of India and other Governments and Administrations, Parliamentary papers and similar publications which are received in the Revenue department will continue to be distributed in that department.

No. 791, FINANCIAL, 11TH OCTOBER 1895.

10. Governments and Administrations concerned will be requested to forward the publications specified above to the officers to whom their distribution is now transferred.
