FROM E. A. Elwin Esquire Collector of BELLARY.

To

THE Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal department.

Sir,

Ostacamand.

Adverting to para 2 of Government Order 432-P 4-5-98, I have the honour to inform you that almost all the Junga-bhadra ferries in the Hospet and Hada-gali taluks were leased out for the current official year before the submission to Government of my proposals to establish additional Road Frontier Inspection Stations and close certain ferries. I regret that I omitted to mention the fact in my letter R.C. 286-P 27-4-98

2. Within

2. Within the past few weeks, however, a few of the ferry contractors have applied for the cancellation of their leases on the grounds that owing to the prevalence of plague in the Bombay Presidency traffic has largely decreased, and further withdrawals on similar grounds are, I learn from the Head Assistant Collector, daily expected. The Local Fund Board will not, of course, object to comply with such applications, except in the case of ferries commanded by Road Frontier Inspection Stations.

I have the honour to be
Sir,

your most obt. servant,

Acting collector
