SIR,

Referring to Government Order, No 454, P dated 9 May 1898, and to Clause (2) of Regulation 17 of the original Muffasil Regulations I have the honor to state that the Agent of the Madras Railway Company has consented to the work of issuing passports being undertaken at all stations in the Chingleput District except Tiruwallu by the station-masters. I have not asked the Agent regarding the Perambore station as that station is large and as it is in the Madras District. The Hospital Assistant in charge of the temporary dispensary at Sembiam who is, as already reported in this office letter to Government No. ¹⁷¹134 dated 12 March last, observing the persons, arriving from infected parts and bound for villages nearer Ambore, is now issuing passports at Perambore but is unable to do the work single handed. The tahildar of Truvallur has been asked to make arrangements temporarily with the village Munsiff of Truvallur and Peria Kuppam for the work at Truvallur. As there is no officer who can conveniently attend to the work at Perambore and Truvallur, I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the entertainment of two clerks on a salary of Rs 15 each.

I have the honor to be
