Plague Regulations

FOR ORDERS.

On the 22nd instant, the Govt of India telegraphed inquiring when it might expect a reply to its confidential letter No 1172 of 10-5-98. In this letter the Govt of India said that it would be prepared to consider any modifications of the existing plague regulations which this Govt might think necessary in respect to particular areas. In reply to the telegram of the 22nd instant, the Govt of India was informed that its letter would be considered along with replies to a reference made by the Govt to native gentlemen about the mode of carrying out the existing Regulations.

Govt of India of 26-6-98 B

Regulations and that it would take at least a month to send a reply. With reference to this, the Govt of India desires that the reply to its letter of 10 May should be sent by the 20 July at the latest.

2. The file in question is still in circulation. The H.M.'s wish that H.E. with whom the file is now, should be reminded about it was conveyed to the private Secy on the 27-6-88.

3. Under the orders of H.E. and H.M., a copy of the India letter of the 10 May ^{was} sent to the President, Municipal Commission Madras on the 25 May, for remarks. A reminder was sent on the 18 June but no reply has yet been received. It is chiefly in regard to Madras that ^{any} modifications of the plague regulations will be necessary, if at all, and it is essential to obtain the President's views in the matter. A draft reminder is submitted for approval.

4. The reference to native gentlemen was made on the 7 May but was Mr. Linn told that the reply must be sent by the 20 July. If not, tell him so plainly.

but as yet, replies have come only from the Hon Mr. Justice Subramania Aiyer

the Hon Mr. V. B. Shyamam Aiyer
Mr. P. Chentoor Rao

A reminder was sent on the 14 June 1888. A second reminder to those who have not yet replied is submitted for approval.

5. A copy of the India letter of the 10 May may, it is submitted, be now sent to the Sanitary Commr. and the Mayor General, with the request that any remarks they may have to offer may be submitted by the 7 July.
