8th July, 1898.

Sir,

With reference to the third paragraph of my letter No. S. 6941, dated 1st July, 1898, I have the honour to inform you that the 23 syringes and the spare parts therein alluded to, were forwarded to you by parcel post, on the 6th July, 1898.

The cost of the supply asked for in the telegram of 22nd June, 1898, will be £28. 14. 9, and the outlay will be treated as a Remittance under the head of "Provincial Funds, Plague".

I enclose a copy of a letter dated 6th July, 1898, from Messrs. Arnold & Sons, stating that the two syringes sent to you on 28th June, are rather larger than those despatched on 6th July and that they have taken steps to obtain from Paris, spare parts suitable for the larger instruments. The cost of these spare parts will be trifling.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Grant

Director General of Stores.

Sir,

With reference to the enclosed copy of a telegram of 22nd June 1898, from His Excellency the Governor of Madras I have the honour to inform you that steps are being taken for the very early supply of the following syringes and spare parts.

Dr. Roux's syringes complete No. 25.

Spare parts.

Glass barrels	No. 25
Plungers	No. 25
Washers	No. 25
Needles	No. 25

I may add that Messrs. Arnold & Sons of 31 West Smithfield, had two syringes in stock, and that these were forwarded to you by Parcel Post on the 28th June. The Packing Account for these two syringes has also been sent to you.

The other 23 syringes, and the spare parts enumerated, will be obtained from Paris at the earliest possible moment.

I trust that the proposed supply of spare parts will meet your requirements.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

L. GRANT BURLS.

To The Director General of Stores,
India Office, Whitehall.

Sir,

With reference to Dr. Roux's syringes for Plague inoculation, the two we supplied from stock although made by M. Collin, are somewhat larger than those just received from him, and we shall therefore have to get spare accessories suitable for the two larger syringes, and as soon as we receive these from Paris, we will advise you. We had no knowledge that M. Collin had altered the size of these syringes until we received the present supply.

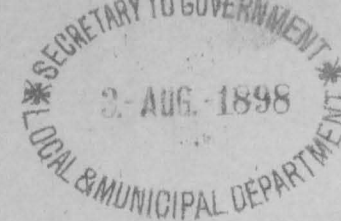

We remain, Sir,
Yours faithfully,
Dr. Arnold & Sons,
(Insd.) J.M.
