FOR ORDERS.

Submitted that the proper officer to give an opinion as to whether a building or place in a mufassal municipality "is so overcrowded as to make the inmates or occupiers specially liable to an attack of the bubonic plague" is a medical or sanitary officer such as the D^r Surgeon or his Assistant. In the city of Madras (vide city Regulation No 3), it is the "opinion of the Health officer of the municipality and of a medical ^{officer} ~~deputed~~ by the Surgeon General or, in the absence of such an officer, of the Surgeon of the district," which is required in this matter.
