[Despatch Abstract.]

Tungabhadra Observation Camp

Stating that the list of things provisioned for the — contains a good many things which may be omitted and requesting the Surgeon-General to curtail it.

Local & Munl. (1898) Department.

CURRENT No. 15410

Through the Surgeon General to the Government of Madras.

From The acting Collector of Bellary

For Orders. H M

The S.G. recommends the indent & if it is sanctioned in the case of Tungabhadra, other stations will also have to be similarly supplied with what appears to be luxuries.
It is doubtful whether any Europeans accustomed to use the articles mentioned are likely to be treated at the plague inspection stations. It is not stated by any officer whether the necessity for these articles has actually been felt in any case.

Very Hardly needed I think

Suppose he thinks it necessary to have a small stock in hand of such articles as Europeans use in case of his having to detain any Europeans either under observation or as plague patients. This does not seem unreasonable - But the list might be cut down a good bit, I think -

Ref 336
16.8.98

The Medical Officer in charge, of Plague observation Camp, Tungabhadra,

The Surgeon-General considers that the articles marked in blue pencil appear quite useless and the others would not go far. Why are these articles required? Will it not be possible to arrange for ordinary food for such patients?
2. Return requested.
