SUBJECT. Anantapur Collr's telegram regarding troops for plague duty.

FOR ORDERS.

Under Addl. Reg 11 (page 33 of pamphlet), the Collr. should arrange ~~with Govt~~ through Govt for troops. In this case the Coll. of Anantapur has sent for them on his own responsibility. The Collr has not given reasons for this step nor explained the state of affairs at Tumiancherla. The following are the latest telegrams:—

7-9-98. From Collr. Two Children of tinker attacked. Robbed dirty clothes from [illegible]. Isolated house burnt

8-9-98. From Collr. "Children two mothers affected. Patients progressing.

Note. There were no cases from 27-8-98 to 6-9-98. Collr's report on plague in tinker's house was sent to H.M. this morning.

Acct sent back H.S. 13/9/98

These cases were in Guntakal not in Tumiancherla
H 13.9

9-98. Frm Collr. "Another child, tinker's family attacked. Two former cases children worse.

-9-98. Frm Collr. Two children dead – one precarious – two women progressing. New case Timmancherla village, platform Coly – removed with contacts to camp. House burnt.

1-9-98. Frm Collr – Sister of Haligadu developing plague. No other attacks. Another infected house Timmancherla burnt.

12-9-98. Frm D.M.&S.C. Haligadu died this morning. No other attacks.

13-9-98 Frm D.M.&S.C. One attack. one death. Old cases doing well.

We have had no more reports [from] Chippagiri, where the Collector [I] likely is at present. That is another source of infection & it seems very doubtful whether it is worth while surrounding Timmancherla, at risk of panic, when Chippagiri is left open –

Note This was recd yesterday & a telegram was sent enquiring who was Haligadu & where his sister was attacked. No reply come yet.
Presumably Haligadu in the Timmancherla Platform coly – [illegible]

Note. This was sent to Madras & came here only this evening.
