Sir

I have the honor to request that if not already done, the attention of all ticket collectors & station masters may be drawn to the mode in which the tickets of persons coming from infected areas are marked at Tungalbadra, Hoopet, Talarpet, Arkonam & Bangalore and that in cases of such persons breaking their journey for reaching the station of destination, station masters may be instructed to mark fresh tickets issued to such persons with the word "plague" in red ink. At small stations it would probably be not difficult to arrange for this being done. By this means we may possibly prevent persons who now not look coming from plague infected areas from eluding the observation. I shall be very much obliged if you will do all that lies in your power to make the station masters at all such stations understand the
