28/9/98

It is not usual for an Asst. Secy. to be directed to the Public Dept. In this case I would furnish the Magistrate with the information & order (not letter) & remind him that the reference should have come through his Secy.

CURRENT No. 18210.

From

The Magistrate of Cuttack.

In Order.

This is with an urgent reference and it is not clear why the Secy. of Cuttack should not address his own Secy. or the Consulting Engineer for Railways. Should the reference be answered - if so, by letter or E.O.?
