The municipal council has already drawn a loan of Rs 210,500 and a grant of Rs 14,000 for the water supply scheme; but as the expenditure on the works up to the 31st March 1899 is estimated at only Rs 100000 there is no necessity for paying the balance of the grant on this account in the current year.

Query, but why was the G.O. of 31/3 so delayed as to fail in its right of having the disbursement made that day?

Note for the Honourable Member.

The telegram, on which G.O. No 687. M, dated 31st March 1898, was issued was received in this office on the evening of the 31st March, when it was nearly 5 O'clock. The order thereon was issued immediately after, but before it could reach the Accountant General's office, which was at about quarter past five or so, the Accountant General and his establishment had left office. The cover containing the G.O. was handed over to the Assistant Accountant General, who was then in the office, but no orders could be issued by him to the Treasury Officer, as it was then his late.
