to civil departments &C.

467. Civil departments are permitted to submit requisitions for tents in very emergent and special cases only, when unserviceable tents may be issued; but if these are not available, new or repaired tents may be issued.
The responsibility for making the requisition will rest on the head of the civil department making it.
Whenever it may be desirable to give privates' or staff sergeants' tents to Native troops, the sanction of Government must be obtained before the order is issued.
