My dear Madam,

I am directed to inform you that Govt. has found it necessary to appoint a Plague Commissioner with powers extending over the whole Presidency including the City of Madras; and to explain that this action has been taken notwithstanding the fullest confidence which Govt. has in your energy and judgment, simply because Govt. finds it impossible to deal ^{and longer} directly with all the multifarious minutiae of Plague administration, much of which depend on the varying circumstances revealed by personal inspection on the spot. Mr. Hammett has been selected for the post, & Govt. feels that it can ^{rely} absolutely on your local cooperation with him.
