Plague

Extract from Alur Tahsildar's arzi Ref.
on c 202 to the Collector of Bellary.
29.9.98

I beg to report that a girl named Komati Thippamma aged 11 was found suffering from plague this morning at Chippagiri. She was removed to the hospital shed, and 8 persons (3 males, 2 females, and 3 children) who were in contact with the patient were segregated. The patient died at 11 A.M. after removal to the shed.

The house contains a large quantity of cotton and other articles and has to be thoroughly disinfected. The S-sanitary Inspector has been directed to carry out the disinfection of the house and its contents under the instructions of the Medical Officer.

30.9.98

Communicated to the Plague Commissioner, Surgeon-General, and S-sanitary Commissioner. The house in question is one of those ordered by the undersigned to be evacuated and

and the occupants were about to remove themselves to the health camp where the case was discovered. Over ⁶⁰⁰~~100~~ persons are now in camp.
