Enclosure.

June 1898, I have the honor to submit as follows:-

Peons are kept in the Private Burial Grounds as in the Public ones.

3. The peon sends the slip to the Registrar of the Division who forwards it to the Head Office.

4. All these particulars are then entered in a book kept for the purpose.

5. When the Registrar's death reports are received they are checked with the burial ground entries.

6. If there should be any discrepancies between the Registrars and the burial ground reports, they are at once sent to the Registrar for verification and registration.
